Dear Melanie:

I have enclosed copies of the information you asked for. Also, I have enclosed a time line that I have started and the analysis information that I have started. I still have a lot to do on the analysis but you will see why I have questions about some of the information. The We Cousins information seems to have several errors.

Maybe we can discuss sometime. I will send you a copy of the completed analysis.

Sincerely,

Jim

TINSLEY FAMILY ANALYSIS

Information for this analysis is taken from the following publications and sources of information:

We Cousins by Florence Sutherland Hudson, see pages attached.

The Powell Families of Virginia and The South by The Rev Silas E. Lucas, Jr., see pages attached.

Ancestral File, LDS Library, information extracted from PC system.

Certain comments made in the attached documents will be discussed in light of trying to determine if a generation is missing between Thomas Tinsley I and Thomas Tinsley III. And, to show that Thomas Tinsley II is not a son of Thomas I and the father of Thomas III as indicated in We Cousins.

The information that is available for the earlier members of the Tinsley family leaves a little room for wondering if a generation has been left out.

The following two families are from information that was found in the "Ancestral File" at a local LDS Family Library.:

Wrong! [redacted] dau of Edward Tinsley who m. Ambrose Rucker. Do not know who this Mary married.

The problem that I see with this family is the age of the parents when the first child is born and their age when the last child would have been born. See comment made on paragraph "L" below.

From We Cousins Volume II by Florence Sutherland Hudson, pages 278-281, copy attached, we have information on:

Thomas Tinslie I, came to VA 1638
Thomas Tinsley II, of Essex County, d. 1699
Thomas Tinsley III, of Essex County, and his wife Sarah Jackson

The author of We Cousins does not put a family together for Thomas I and Thomas II but does list children for Thomas III based on his will.

We Cousins: (certain paragraphs have been designated by an alphabetical character for ease in identification.)

"A" Thomas Tinsley is identified as living in "James City Co. which became New Kent in 1654, and his descendants lived in these burned out counties for at least another generation before THOMAS TINSLEY II of Essex Co. emerges in 1699, just in time for his death to be recorded in that county."

It appears with one of the main families living in a burned out county, it will not be possible to have absolute proof that certain information is correct or incorrect.

"B" "No doubt, both he (this must refer to Thomas Tinsley II) and the Thomas Tinsley (this refers to Thomas I) of New Kent Co. whose will was recorded in that county in 1702 were grandsons of the original Thomas Tinslie I (sic) of the Colony of Va. in 1638."

When we consider what is said is this paragraph, we have to accept the fact that both persons referred to are grandchildren of Thomas I or that the statement is incorrect. The author indicates later that Thomas II is the father of Thomas III. If they are both grandsons, then Thomas II can not be the father of Thomas III.

"C" "It is reported that THOMAS TINSLEY of the 1700 will (this refers to Thomas I) in New Kent married ELIZABETH PENDLETON. Perhaps there are family documents which prove this claim but there are many public records which indicate that it could have been THOS. TINSLEY II of Essex Co. whose wife was ELIZABETH PENDLETON.

Other records indicate that the wife of Thomas Tinsley I is Sarah Randolph. Based on paragraph "E", Philip Pendleton, one of the original Pendletons in VA did not get married until about 1679. That would make the fist child being born about 1680 which appears to be too late for a daughter of Philip Pendleton to be the mother of the children of Thomas I. Thomas I first child is estimated to have been born about 1640 nearly 40 years before Philip Pendleton got married.

"D" "The best of these clues is that THOMAS TINSLEY III of Essex and his wife SARAH, named their second son PHILIP TINSLEY.

The old method for some families naming their children is:

1st son after father's father
2nd son after mother's father
3rd son after father
4th son after father's eldest brother

1st daughter after mother's mother
2nd daughter after father's mother
3rd daughter after mother
4th daughter after mother's eldest sister

Do we know the order of the birth of the children? It could be, based on the above method of naming children, that Isaac is the second son born to Sarah and Thomas Tinlsley being named after Isaac Jackson the father of Sarah.

"E" "PHILIP (PENDLETON) married twice, the first time in England, probably about 1769."

"F" When THOMAS TINSLEY II of Essex died in 1698 he left a son THOMAS TINSLEY III who had probably just reached his majority so was born about 1675. When he made his will in 1715 all of his several children were under age.

See comments made above for paragraph "B" where Thomas II and Thomas III are indicated as being grandsons. The Thomas Tinsley information taken from the LDS Ancestral File who was married to Sarah Jackson is indicated as being born about 1640 which is 35 years earlier than what is indicated in paragraph "F".

"G" "THOMAS TINSLEY, whose wife was said to have been ELIZABETH PENDLETON, died in New Kent Co. in 1702."

"H" "This THOMAS TINSLEY is not the THOMAS TINSLEY II, who died in Essex Co. before 21 June 1699, unless the date of one or other of these documents has become confused, which doesn't seem possible."

"I" In 1698 a THOMAS TINSLEY patented 112 1/2 acres.... We believe that this was THOMAS TINSLEY III of Essex Co., who evidently acted as admt. of the estate of THOMAS TINSLEY II of Essex who died before 21 June 1699."

"J" "Even this concurs with the will of THOS. TINSLEY of New Kent Co. for he named his son THOMAS TINSLEY JR. sole executor of his estate."

Note in paragraph "I" Thomas Tinsley II had died by 21 June 1699 and is indicated to be the son of Thomas I. When Thomas I made his will on 9 Oct. 1700, which is over 15 months after Thomas II had died, and he name his son Thomas as the "whole and True Exor, to See this my Will performed." From will published in the Richmond News Leader, March 13, 1903, page 8, column 1 and 2.

Based on the fact that Thomas I appointed his son Thomas to be the executor of his will, it would stand to reason that he had a son by the name of Thomas living in October, 1700.

"K" On 5 Dec. 1706 THOMAS TINSLEY ... and SARAH his wife conveyed .... Evidence is that SARAH was dau. of ISAAC JACKSON, dec'd in 1700."

Based on this paragraph and other information, the wife of Thomas Tinsley III is Sarah Jackson.

"L" There is little likelyhood that THOMAS TINSLEY had a total of 14 sister to whom these lands were conveyed but those connected with the JOHN MAY deed to TINSLEY look as though they might be related. Since TINSLEY was a young man married about 1698-1702, if related, some of these men with various names must be husbands of his sisters."
Refer to the attached pages for information about all the deeds.

Paragraph "F" indicates Thomas III was born about 1675 and made his will in 1715 and this paragraph gives a timeframe for his marriage. The family for Sarah and Thomas Tinsley III includes seven children as indicated above. Between 1698 or 1702 and 1716 there is enough time for seven children to be born to this couple.

CHAPTER IX

TINSLEY

The connecting link between the MORTON Chapter and this chapter is TALITHA TINSLEY, daughter of THOS. TINSLEY V of Amelia and Prince Edward Cos., who married JOHN MORTON of Prince Edward Co. Va. in Sept. 1778.

At least seven of their children, including QUIN MORTON, born 1781, were born in Va. before they removed to Clark Co. Ky. about 1790.

They were the foreparents of a big connection of MORTONS of that county and state and of the many descendants of JOHN W. HODGES and THOMAS SHELTON SUTHERLAND SR. of Texas.

According to the records contained in "Cavaliers and Pioneers" by Nugent, the first THOMAS TILSLEY (TINSLEY) in the new world came as a headright of JOHN ROBINS who was granted 1200 acres of land in James City Co. on 25 Feb. 1638 for the importation of his first wife, DOROTHY, and his second wife, ALICE, and twenty-two more persons. ("Cavaliers and Pioneers", p. 102)

The 1200 acres to ROBINS lay on the Chicahominy River in James City Co. beginning at Marsh Island.

THOMAS TINSLEY I) of the new world patented 300 acres on the west side of the Chicahominy River 13 Dec. 1650. This is another entry in "Cavaliers and Pioneers" with the name TINSLEY mis-spelled, but there is no mistaking the identity of THOMAS TINSLIE, who lived in James City Co. 2 Dec. 1655 and whose land was part of the boundry to 100 acres patented to SAMUEL SMITH on that date, said 100 acres lying in James City Co. on the north side of the Chicahominy River, northly on Moses Run along a sandy ridge to THOS. TINSLIES line. "Cavaliers and Pioneers," p. 323.

It is possible that THOMAS TINSLEY I) of Va. came even earlier than 1638 for, although the head-right system was started in 1619 when Virginia became a Royal Colony, in many instances it was 1636, 37 and 38 before the patents were issued under this system.

James City Co. is one of a block of counties including Charles City, Warwick, Gloucester, New Kent made in 1654 from York, James City, King and Queen made 1691 from New Kent, King William made 1701/2 from King and Queen, and Caroline (organized 1727/28 from Essex, King and Queen and King William) which have lost their records.

THOMAS TINSLEY I) of Va. probably was cut off in that part of James City Co. which became New Kent in 1654, and his descendants lived in these burned out counties for at least another generation before THOMAS TINSLEY II) of Essex Co. emerges in 1699, just in time for his death to be recorded in that county.

No doubt, both he and the THOMAS TINSLEY of New Kent Co. whose will was recorded in that county in 1702 were grandsons of the original THOMAS TINSLIE I) of the Colony of Va. in 1638.

It is reported that THOMAS TINSLEY of the 1700 will in New Kent married ELIZABETH PENDLETON. Perhaps there are family documents which prove this claim but there are many public records which indicate that it could have been THOS. TINSLEY II) of Essex Co. whose wife was ELIZABETH PENDLETON.

The best of these clues is that THOMAS TINSLEY III) of Essex and his wife SARAH, named their second son PHILIP TINSLEY.

The two original PENDLETONS in Va. were PHILIP PENDLETON b. 1650 in England and his brother NATHANIEL, a minister, who died shortly after he came to Va. and is thought to have never married.

PHILIP married twice, the first time in England, probably about 1679. The second wife, whom he married in Virginia, was ISABELLA HURT or HART. This name HURT or HART is found associated with the TINSLEYS of Va., South Carolina, and Kentucky who are descendants of THOS. TINSLEY III) of Essex Co.

Furthermore, JOHN PENDLETON, son of PHILIP, married about 1710 a Miss TINSLEY said to have been of Madison Co. Va. which was a daughter county of Culpeper Co. made of Orange, made of Spts. Co. made of Essex.

EDWARD TINSLEY married MARGARET, a daughter of Col. JAMES TAYLOR, whose dau. MARY, was the wife of HENRY PENDLETON, oldest son of PHILLIP.

EDWARD TINSLEY'S eldest daughter was ELIZABETH PENDLETON.

When THOMAS TINSLEY II) of Essex died in 1698 he left a son THOMAS TINSLEY III) who had probably just reached his majority so was born about 1675. When he made his will in 1715 all of his several children were under age.

This would mean that, if THOMAS II) of Essex was the husband of ELIZABETH PENDLETON, she would have been a sister of PHILIP PENDLETON born about 1650 in order to have been the mother of THOMAS TINSLEY born about 1675.

There is no record of the importation of the parents of PHILIP and NATHANIEL into Virginia but the sister may have come with her brothers "who were sent by their mother about 1674 in a ship whereof Capt. JOHN PLOVER was master."

"PHILIP PENDLETON returned to England at the end of 5 years and married there returning the same year and has since married (2) here and has several children, all residing in King and Queen Co." (Testimony of GEORGE WARD, age 57, 10 Aug. 1710 at the request of PHILIP PENDLETON).

THOMAS TINSLEY, whose wife was said to have been ELIZABETH PENDLETON, died in New Kent Co. in 1702. His will is dated 9 Oct. 1700 and in it he names his loving ELIZABETH who is to have the use of his plantation. during her natural life. ELIZ. was evidently his wife.

Their children were:

1. SOELILY (CECILY?) JENNINGS to whom he left one shilling;
2. ANN TYLER - one shilling;
3. SON THOMAS TINSLEY plantation and equipment after the death of his wife;
4. CORNELIUS TINSLEY ½ of residue of estate;
5. JOHN TINSLEY other ½ of residue of estate;
6. Granddaughter DEBORAH PAYNE.

This THOMAS TINSLEY is not the THOMAS TINSLEY II, who died in Essex. Co. before 21 June 1699, unless the date of one or other of these documents has become confused, which doesn't seem possible.

"Judgement was granted against Major WILLIAM MOSELEY, late sheriff of Essex Co. for 900 lbs. of tobo for the non-appearance of THOMAS TINSLEY at the suit of ROBERT PAYNE against the estate of THOS. TINSLEY 21 June 1699. (Essex Co. Court Orders 1695-1699)

Since THOMAS TINSLEY of New Kent had granddaughter, DEBORAH PAYNE, and ROBERT PAYNE of Essex is claiming part of the estate of THOMAS TINSLEY dec'd 1699, it would seem that these two of the same name are one, but unless the dates on the will of the former are in error this could not be true.

In 1698 a THOMAS TINSLEY patented 112½ acres of land in Essex Co. at the foot of Mt. Claybourne Hill on a branch of Portobago Creek adj. JAMES COGHILL and JAMES SCOTT (Land Patents Bk. 8 p. 1). We believe that this was THOMAS TINSLEY III) of Essex Co., who evidently acted as admt. of the estate of THOMAS TINSLEY II) of Essex who died before 21 June 1699.

Even this concurs with the will of THOS. TINSLEY of New Kent Co. for he named his son THOMAS TINSLEY JR. sole executor of his estate.

In 1704 two patents were made to THOMAS TINSLEY III for a total of 2400 acres. These grants were on Portabago and Tucahoe Creeks, one for 1000 acres and one for 1400. The land lay adjacent to EDWIN THACKER. ("Colonial Caroline Co." - Campbell p. 299)

On 26 April 1704, the wife of THOS. TINSLEY III) was SARAH.

On 5 Dec. 1706 THOMAS TINSLEY of St. Ann's Parish Essex Co. and SARAH his wife conveyed to JOHN ZACKERY of Middlesex Co. for 3700 lbs. of tobo, 150 acres, a part of a tract adj. to TINSLEY and belonging to him. This deed signed by THOMAS and SARAH TINSLEY is recorded in Essex Records 1706-1707 p. 317 and extracted in Dorman's Essex Co. Records p. 90. Evidence is that SARAH was dau. of ISAAC JACKSON, dec'd in 1700.

The witnesses were ROBERT COOK and W. J. HARDIE.

A conveyance of Feb. 1706/7 from JOHN MAY of Essex Co. for divers good causes to THOMAS TINSLEY of same, 1100 acres patented to JOHN MAY 20 Oct. 1704, land lying on the branches of Rappahanock and Mattopony Rivers at the head of a valley between Cockleshell Cr. and the head branch of Occupation Cr. adj. CHAS. BROWN and JOHN COLEMAN. (p. 334 of original Essex Co. Records - Dorman)

On the same day, THOS. TINSLEY transferred the said 1100 acres to ROBERT GEORGE and JOHN CHIDELL ( Ibid p. 342).

On 8 May 1707 Mr. ROBERT GEORGE and SARAH, his wife, and Mr. JOHN CHEADLE and HANNAH, his wife, of Middlesex Co. planters to THOS. TINSLEY of Essex Co. for divers good causes a patent for 1150 formerly granted THOS. TINSLEY on 20 Oct. 1704 which was delivered to us by bill of sale Feb. 1706-7. (Ibid p. 27 original p. 404)

These deeds involving 1150 acres of land from MAY to TINSLEY to GEORGE and CHIDELL, and then from ROBERT GEORGE and wife, SARAH, and JOHN CHEADEL and wife, HANNAH, to THOS. TINSLEY without any statement of remuneration on the part of either, is certainly a departure from the usual pattern of land transactions, and no doubt involves some kind of family arrangement although it is not clear exactly what the conditions and the relationship are.

On 3 Oct. 1707, THOS. TINSLEY III) and ANDREW JACKSON made oath that on 25 or 26 of March 1706 they cleared and tended one acre of land belonging to Mr. WILLIAM LOWRY of 1040 acres lying near the branches of Tuckahoo and Occupation Creeks (Essex Co. Records 1707-1711 Bk. No. 13, p. 24). Probably ANDREW, like THOS. JACKSON of these Records, was bro. of SARAH.

There are three deeds recorded in this same Book of Essex Records on pages 34 and 35. The grantors in each are THOMAS TINSLEY and his wife, SARAH and the grantees are WILLIAM DANIEL, RICHARD DAVIDSON, and JOHN MAKENNAY. The land conveyed to each was 100 acres and the consideration was a number of lbs. of tobacco. They were all dated either June 17 or 18, 1708 and are recorded on pp. 135-139 and 140-142 in Bk. 13. Because of the uniformity of these deeds, it follows that they were probably part of an estate settlement. They could have married his daughters for all of TINSLEY'S children were minors when he died several years later. Perhaps ney were SARAH'S family. Records hint that DANIEL had a connection to the JACKSON family.

The deeds to DANIEL and DAVIDSON were from a 1000 acre patent to TINSLEY 26 April 1704 and the one to MAKINNEY were from a 1400 acre tract patented the same day. The tracts adjoined one another and both were on Potobago Cr.

Still in the records of Essex Co. 1707-1711 are to be found two more indentures, these two dated 8 April 1710 both for 125 acres from the 1100 which TINSLEY bought of JOHN MAY. The first was to THOS BELL from THOS. TINSLEY and it was witnessed by ROBERT COOKE and JOHN MILLER as also was the other from TINSLEY and his wife, SARAH, to WILLIAM MAKINNIE. (Ibid p. 304-307)

On 6 July 1710 THOS. TINSLEY III) of Essex Co., 150 acres to THOS. and JOHN EMERSON, sons of HENRY EMERSON Of Middlesex Co. from the grant of 1400 acres dated 26 April 1704 on the head of Potobago Creek.

On April 9, 1713, THOMAS TINSLEY conveyed to WM. KILPIN of Christs Church Parish - Middlesex Co. 316 Acres in St. Ann's Parish bounded by WILLIAM DANIEL'S plantation then across head of Portabago Swamp to a gum in ENOCH DOWTYS old line adjacent a hickory at McKENNYS corner.

Wits: WILL BRIANT, THOS. JACKSON. (VA. Col. Abstracts Vol. VIII Essex Co. - Fleet pp. 43 & 44)

SARAH, wife of THOS. TINSLEY releases dower to JOHN TINSLEY.

All of the children of THOMAS TINSLEY III) were minors in 1715 when he wrote his will so JOHN TINSLEY who was grown in 1713 was probably a brother of THOS. III.

The final deed conveyed by TINSLEY was dated 8 April 1714 in which he sold to LEONARD TARENT for £13 and 1500 lbs. of tobacco the remainder of the 1100 acres to him by JOHN MAY 20 Oct. 1704. The said TINSLEY having already sold part of tract to wit: 150 acres to THOS. SNEED, 150 acres to CORNELIUS VAUGHN, 125 acres to THOS. BELL, 100 acre to JOHN MACKENNY.

The remaining 500 acres to TARENT being bounded by JOHN COLEMAN, JOHN MACKENNY and THOS. BELL.

Wits: LAWRENCE TALIAFERRO, SAMUEL HAWS.

This conveyance not signed by SARAH. (Ibid p. 88)

In reviewing the deeds of conveyance to and from THOMAS TINSLEY III) of Essex Co. and his wife SARAH, it appears that only the latter two to WM. KILPIN of Middlesex Co. and LEONARD TARRANT were actually deeds of sales. The uniformity in dates, acreage, etc., suggest that the other may have been deeds of gift with a token payment to TINSLEY.

These deeds more or less fall into two groups - those from the 1100 acres to TINSLEY from JOHN MAY and his wife GRACE, as of Feb. 1706/7 and those from the 1400 and 1000 acres patents to THOS. TINSLEY himself under date of 26 April 1704.

Those who were associated with the 1100 acre tract from MAY were: JOHN MAY and wife, GRACE; Mr. ROBERT GEORGE and his wife, SARAH; Mr. JOHN CHEADLE and his wife, HANNAH, THOMAS BELL and WM. MAKINNEY, and THOS. SNEED, CORNELIUS VAUGHN, and perhaps JOHN ZACKERY.

Those who were grantees from the 2500 acre grants to TINSLEY and his wife, SARAH, were; WILLIAM DANIEL, RICHARD DAVIDSON, JOHN MAKINNEY and THOMAS and JOHN EMERSON, of HENRY EMERSON.

There is little likelyhood that THOMAS TINSLEY had a total of 14 sisters to whom these lands were conveyed but those connected with the JOHN MAY deed to TINSLEY look as though they might be related. Since TINSLEY was a young man married about 1698-1702, if related, some of these men with various names must be husbands of his sisters.

Probably the wife of ROBERT PAYNE, who entered claim against the estate of THOMAS TINSLEY II) in 1699 was sister to THOMAS TINSLEY III) as was also the wife of JOHN ZACKARY. The wives of these two and GRACE MAY. SARAH GEORGE, and HANNAH CHEADEL are possible sisters of THOMAS TINSLEY III).

There must also have been a definite relationship between TINSLEY and one of the parents of THOMAS and JOHN EMERSON to whom the former conveyed land.

Fourth Generation - TINSLEY

The will of THOS. TINSLEY III) of St. Ann's Parish Essex Co. Va. was dated 25 Nov. 1715 and recorded 22 Feb. 1716.

All of his children as of that date were minors.

He left to his son THOMAS a heifer.

To son PHILLIP a mare.

To each of his other sons 1 cow, each.

All the rest of estate to wife, SARAH. She to have all lands during her life and afterwards the land I live on to my son THOMAS.

Son PHILLIP to have 82 acres in said Co. when he is of age

Wife, SARAH, exctx.

Fountain Gillespie Tinsley was born in Barren County, Kentucky, Nov. 23, 1832. He came to Texas with his parents in 1834. His father was Dr. John Turner Tinsley, was in the battle at Gonzales in 1835.

In 1836, after the Mexians had stormed the Alamo and Gen. Sam Houston was with his army at Gozales, he made the Tinsley home his head quarters. When the army left Gonzales on the approach of the Mexican army under Santa Anna, Dr. Tinsley materially aided the cause of independence by making a trip to the coast after ammunition and intercept the army of Houston on their line of march with the powder and lead in time to be used in the famous battle of San Jacinto, which was fought soon afterwards.

THE POWELL FAMILIES of VIRGINIA AND THE SOUTH

by the Rev. Silas E. Lucas, Jr.

Personal Copy of Book.

TINSLEY

The earliest TINSLEY or TINLEY in Virginia seems to have been THOMAS TINSLIE. He was in James City County long before 1655. In that year SAMUEL SMITH received a patent for 100 acres in that county. One of the boundaries for the land was "THOMAS TINSLIES'S line." (Patent Book 4.)

There is no extremely early patent in the name of THOMAS TINSLEY. He must have purchased the land mentioned above. His arrival date in the colony has not been ascertained.

Since the early records of James City County were destroyed in the fall of Richmond in 1865, it is almost impossible to build his family. The 1704 Quit Rent Roll for Virginia does give some light on the subject. There were two TINSLEYS in James City County at that time, EDWARD and RICHARD. Edward owned 100 acres and so did RICHARD. These could have been sons of THOMAS above.

In the neighboring county of New Kent, there resided three TINSLEYS - CORNELIUS, JOHN, and THOMAS. CORNELIUS had 220 acres; JOHN, 130 acres; and THOMAS, 150. This could be three more sons.

In the Vestry Book & Register of St. Peter's Parish, New Kent and James City Counties, Va., 1684-1786 (edited by C. G. Chamberlayne) two TINSLEY baptisms were recorded, page 398:

ELIZABETH dau. of CORNELIUS TINSLEY baptized the 4 Apr. 1703
MARY dau. of THOS. TINSLEY baptized ye 7 Feb. 1702/3

Since there were such few recordings on family, it appears that the TINSLEY family might have removed to other points. On the 1704 Quit Rent Roll of Essex County, THOMAS TINSLEY was counted with 111 acres. It is most likely that the THOMAS TINSLEY of New Kent was the same as THOMAS TINSLEY of Essex.

In the period 1689-1706, only 3 patents were granted in the name of TINSLEY. These were given to THOMAS. In Vol. 8, 100 acres were given to THOMAS (page 25, 1689-1695). In Vol. 9, two grants were given him in April of 1704. These patents were for 1400 acres and 1000 acres respectively (pages 593-599).

The JOHN TINSLEY in New Kent County in 1704 would appear to be too old to be the one that died in Halifax County in 1762. Under all probability this was an uncle.

The THOMAS TINSLEY of Essex County appears to be the father of JOHN TINSLEY that died in Halifax County in 1761. The next earliest record on THOMAS was printed in the VIRGINIA COLONIAL ABSTRACTS VOL. 8, ESSEX COUNTY, by Beverly Fleet, page 113 - "16 & 17 January 1712/13, THOMAS TINSLEY of Vt. Ann Parish sells to WILLIAM KILPIN of Christ Church Parish, Middlesex County, 316 acres in St. Ann Parish, bounded on a line beginning at a red oak near WILLIAM DANIEL'S plantation, then crossing the head of Portobago Swamp, to a gum in ENOCH DOWTY's old line, the line passing a hickory at Makennys Corner. Signed: THOMAS TINDSLEY. Witnessed by WILL BRIANT and THOMAS JACKSON. SARAH TINDSLEY, wife of THOMAS TINDSLEY, by JOHN TINDSLEY her attorney, relinquishing her right of dower. Signed SARAH TINDSLEY (her mark). Recorded Apr. 9, 1713."

Little else has been found on THOMAS TINSLEY. His will is recorded in Essex County, Virginia, Wills & Deeds Book No. 14, 1714-1716, page 483:

Will of THOMAS TINSLEY of St. Anns Parish, Essex County
Dated 25th November, 1715, probated 22 Feb., 1715/16
To son: THOMAS TINSLEY - a horse
To son: PHILLIP TINSLEY - a mare
To each of his other sons a cow when they reach twenty years.
(These were not named.)
To daughters: an ewe.
Balance of estate to wife SARAH, and at her death to his sons
THOMAS and PHILLIP
Witnessed by JAMES JAMERSON, SAMUEL BIZELL. THOMAS X. JACKSON, and THOMAS DICKISON.
Probated by oath of SARAH TINSLEY, widow. Recorded 22 Feb., 1715/16

This will did not name a JOHN, but since a JOHN TINDSLEY acted as SARAH'S attorney in the deed above, we feel sure that there was a son by that name. On Sept. 19, 1727, one ISAAC TINSLEY purchased land from THOMAS JACKSON in Essex County (Book D, page 298). JACKSON was a witness on the Will of THOMAS TINSLEY. This makes it appear that this was one of the younger sons not named in the will.

Nothing has been found on the life of JOHN TINSLEY of Halifax County, Virginia. He did live in the Parish of Antrim and belonged to the church there. He must have lived a quiet life.

The will of JOHN TINSLEY is recorded in Halifax County Will Book O, 1753-1772, page 139:

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN, I JOHN TINSLEY of Antrim Parish in the County of Halifax being in perfect sence (sic) and memory praised be god doth make and Constitute and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament as Followeth -

FAMILY OF JOHN TINSLEY AND SUSANNAH, HIS WIFE

1. AGOTHEY TINSLEY married BRYANT COKER.
2. RACHEL TINSLEY married JOHN CARGILL, son of CORNELIUS CARGILL. They migrated to Laurens District, South Carolina.
3. MONOAH TINSLEY married ELIZABETH CARGILL, daughter of CORNELIUS CARGILL and ELIZABETH DANIEL. They also migrated to Laurens District, S. C.
4. JOHN TINSLEY.
5. KESIAH TINSLEY.
6. ELLINOR TINSLEY.
7. SARAH TINSLEY.
8. ELIZABETH TINSLEY.
9. MARY TINSLEY.

MONOAH TINSLEY, SON OF JOHN TINSLEY
(No. 3 above)

MONOAH TINSLEY, husband of ELIZABETH CARGILL, died in Abbeville District, South Carolina, in 1785. His estate was administered by THOMAS CARGILL and DAVID BAILEY of Laurens County. They gave bond for 1000 pounds, as securities. The inventory was made by THOMAS DENDY, JOHN MILAM, and THOMAS CARGILL. He left at least one son, and possibly another.

CORNELIUS TINSLEY (known)
ABRAHAM TINSLEY (possible)

CORNELIUS TINSLEY lived in Laurens County, South Carolina. He left a will dated December 3, 1817. It was probated December 8, 1817. It is recorded in Will Book D-1, page 423:

Daughter: Patsey Weeks
Daughter: Betsey Tinsley, wife of Jeremiah Tribble
Grandson: Cornelius Tinsley

ADDITIONAL TINSLEY NOTES

After the preceding pages on the Tinsley family were written, some additional information on this line was received from Miss Mary Lucille Payne of Olive Branch, Mississippi. She stated in her letter that the THOMAS TINSLEY of James City County, later New Kent County, Virginia, died in 1702 and left a will. This will is supposedly owned in the original form by a descendent who lives in West Virginia. She stated further that this will named sons THOMAS TINSLEY, JOHN TINSLEY, and CORNELIUS TINSLEY, and a daughter who married a Mr. PAYNE. The wife's name was given as ELIZABETH; THOMAS TINSLEY II was named as executor. If this will does exist, it takes care of the TINSLEYS that were on the 1704 Quit. Rent roll of New Kent County.

Miss PAYNE further believes that the THOMAS TINSLEY, son of THOMAS, died before 1751 and was a land owner in St. Paul's Parish, New Kent County. He was the father of MARY TINSLEY born in 1703 (St. Peter's Register, New Kent County); RACHEL (uncertain); ELIZABETH who married DRURY ALLEN; THOMAS who died before 1780 and married MARTHA RAGLAND;

JOHN TINSLEY who died 1762 in Halifax County. If this notation is correct, it gives the father of our JOHN TINSLEY as THOMAS and the grandfather as THOMAS, the elder.

She further stated that SUSANNAH, wife of JOHN TINSLEY of Halifax County, was probably a CHILES, for these families had very strong ties in this colonial period.

It is most certain that JOHN TINSLEY was of this New Kent family, for the name CORNELIUS was passed down in this family even after their removal to South Carolina. Just which of the three TINSLEYS of New Kent County was JOHN'S father can still be debated.

The following is a brief outline of the TINSLEY family as given by Miss PAYNE:

1. THOMAS TINSLEY of New Kent Co., Va., b. in England, d. 1702 in New Kent; md. ELIZABETH ___. Bought land in New Kent in 1662 (Cavaliers and pioneers by Nugent); named spelled TENSLIE and TILSEY in old records.

   II. THOMAS TINSLEY (exc. of 1702 will of THOMAS) b. in Virginia, d. before 1751. Land owner in St. Paul's Parish, New Kent, in 1704.

      III. MARY TINSLEY b. 1703, St. Peter's Register, New Kent.

PREFACE

Information in this preface is copied from the "Genealogical Sketch of the Tinsley and Goode Families of Virginia" as compiled by Mary Tinsley Kindred, dated Roanoke, Virginia, July 14, 1911. At that time Mrs. Kindred was 67 years of age. She died in 1936.

She heads her Sketch- as follows-

> Honorable Ancestry has ever been held in veneration by mankind. It inspires self respect and is a potent incentive to virtue. As we contemplate on the worthy lives of our progenitors we can but desire to walk in their footsteps.

More than fifty years ago cousin Mary Tinsley Kindred published a history of the Tinsley Family of Virginia which had its beginning as far back as 390 years B.C. The information concerning this early descendency had been traced by one G. Browne Goode in the British Museum from old books on "Heraldy for seventy generations twenty two centuries." It started with one Ferodach, a prince of Scots in Ireland, and extended to one Isabell Penkerville who had married Richard Goode of Whitby, Cornwall, England, in 1558 AD. Richard Goode and Isabell were the parents of John Goode, an emigrant to Virginia in 1630. The Isabell Penkerville pedigree dated back to one Cerdic, the Saxon, who was crowned Third King of England at Westminster AD 552. This John Goode was the father of Joseph Goode, who in turn was the father of John Daniel Goode, a citizen of Culpeper, Amherst and Bedford Counties in Virginia. John Daniel Goode married Elizabeth Campbell of the Clan Campbell of Scotland. The Campbell Clan, one of the most powerful in Scotland, is sketched by A. A. and A. K. Johnston of Edinburgh, Scotland. This sketch of the Campbell dynasty dates as far back as 1280 AD when one Sir Colin Mor Campbell was knighted by Alexander, Third King of Scotland. Cousin Mollie's book shows quite a trace of the Campbell Clan down through the centuries, a name still revered by Scots. This John Goode who married Elizabeth Campbell was the father of Benjamin Goode, and this Benjamin Goode was the father of Amarilla Goode. Amarilla Goode married Willis Tinsley and Willis Tinsley and Amarilla Goode were the parents of Benjamin Tinsley, father of Mary Tinsley Kindred, author of this history.

Cousin Mary, more familiarly known to the family as Cousin Mollie, appears to have made quite an exhaustive study of the early family history which makes most interesting reading. In this preface there has been covered only a synopsis of her research, which contains war anecdotes as well as romances, especially a romance of Captain Richard Holland of Revolutionary fame, year 1782.

In the old English Feudal System the warriors of each tribe were designated by a Coat of Arms, which he wore or were flown from the flag staff. No effort was made to control the use of these designations until about the Sixteenth Century. At that time such control was deemed to be necessary because many undeserving individuals who had never borne arms in battle usurped the designation under false colors. So there was organized what was known as the Heralds Visitation which sent out Officers of the Heralds College, England, to visit every family seat in Tngland for the purpose of collecting direct family evidence. These pedigrees or Records of Arms, as claimed by each family, were confirmed or disallowed in accordance with the evidence collected. Records of these expeditions filled many volumes of manuscript and are now preserved in the British Museum, Heralds College and other collective institutions in England. It is from the Yorkshire Visitation by these agents that the root of the Tinsley Family history takes life, as follows:

> Roger Magerolles, Lord of Tinsloo, married Eune, daughter of Roger Bushby. Their son William, at the death of his father became Lord of Tinsloo. Roger Magerolles had a daughter who married Richard Brette. Richard Brette had a daughter, Betryce, who married William Londorer. Sir Walter Brette, a later descendant had a daughter named Lucy. Lucy Brette married Sir Henry Tinsley, whose ancestors were called Londoners and of the lineage of Lord of Tinsleom. From the marriage of Sir Henry and Lucy Brette came a son, William Tinsley, who married the daughter of Sir William Wadesly. The next record of the Tinsley family in England is found recorded in the British Herald under "Cabinet of Armorial Bearings of the Nobility and Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland from the Earliest to the Present Time." In Thomas Robsons "Collection of Names of the Nobility from Yorkshire, England" there appears the Tinsley name with a description of the Coat of Arms. In the Coat of Arms the red denotes courage, the argent of silver designates sincerety-purity-innocence-peace, the chevron signifies protection, the helmet was allowed only in the Coat of Arms of those who fought nearest the King and relates to Nobility. The stork is emblematic of piety and gratitude. The stork was held in great veneration by many of the early kings and under law was prohibited from being disturbed. Therefore they were allowed to build their nests atop of castles, and as shown in the Coat of Arms indicate that the family lived in castles. The Latin inscription, Sine-Labe-Fides, is translated "Fidelity without Blemish" or "Faith without Dishonor".

Under orders of the House of Burgesses in 1634 Virginia was divided into eight political sub-divisions or counties- York, Elizabeth City, Isle of Wight, Henrico, Warwick, Charles City, James City and Accomac. In 1720 Henrico was again divided into nine subdivisions, one of which was known as Hanover. It is in this part of Virginia, now known as Hanover County, that Thomas Tinsley I migrated from Yorkshire England with his wife Elizabeth. There follows Thomas Tinsley II who married Martha Ragland, Thomas Tinsley III who married Frances Bickley, Thomas Tinsley IV who married Agnes Garland and whose son John Tinsley married Nancy Washington who was the widow of Henry W. Washington - a nephew of General George Washington, Thomas Tinsley V who married Sussanna Thompson. Thomas Tinsley V was a colonel in the Revolutionary War and had been a member of the House of Burgesses. These ancestors were pretentious and proud, ceremonial in manner and speech, cultured and sympathetic with the highest ideals, kindly, democratic in their dealings with their fellowman, hospitable, devoted to their families, gallant to the fair sex, deeply interested in civil and state affairs, of a sporting nature and devoted defenders of the church and their creed.

Isaac and Jacob Tinsley, brothers of Willis Lewis Tinsley, were two of the original fourteen young men composing the first class of Richmond College, Virginia. Richmond College was established as a Baptist School and these two gentlemen later became Baptist Ministers although they had been reared in the Episcopal Faith. In 1774 Amherst Parish lists three Tinsleys as Vestrymen, Zachariah, Martin and David. Together with the Garlands, the Tinsleys were staunch Episcopalians in establishing the Episcopal Church in Amherst County, Virginia. During the early days of Amherst County there were many intermarriages among the first families, Harrisons, Randolphs, Goodes, Tinsleys and others. Wyatt Tinsley married Elizabeth Harrison, daughter of Benjamin Harrison, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, a member of Congress and Governor of Virginia. Elizabeth Harrison was the sister of William Henry Harrison, ninth President of the United States. Carter Harrison's biography of the Benjamin Harrison family states that they were a prominent family in the patriarchal society of the Old Dominion. The Harrison estate was founded by the acquisition of 200 acres of land on Warrosquivada Creek which was conveyed to Benjamin Harrison by deed dated July 6th in the ninth year of King Charles of England and declared to be in requital of the services of said Harrison as clerk. How long he was clerk to earn this estate is not recorded but in 1641 he was again listed as creditor in the amount of 600 pounds of tobacco due as salary. The House of Burgesses passed an Act to pay him 7L 10S sterling in lieu of the tobacco. The full name of his wife is not recorded - only Mary. He was an intimate friend of Governor Sir William Berkeley. He died in 1712.

Louis Willis Tinsley was named after Colonel Henry Willis, founder of Fredericksburg, Virginia. Catherine Willis, who was an ancestress of Mary Washington, married Achille Murat, ex-prince of Naples and a nephew of Napoleon Bonaparte. The George Washington family and the Willis family were closely knit by intermarriage.

THIS TRADITION is dedicated to my children and grandchildren. Being the oldest in line of ancestry I have felt it incumbent upon me to leave to my children, and those who follow, some historical background and facts concerning the Tinsley Family of Virginia, as I knew them. The original devise was to commit to record only that part of the name with which I was most familiar, covering approximately one hundred and forty years. But before this plan was consummated a larger and longer scope suggested itself to me as probably being more interesting. The author has spent a number of years, traveled many places, and contacted many people in his effort to offer herewith, to the best of his ability and research, a fair and accurate resume' of the Virginia Clan. That this record is not complete within its own bounds is in itself disappointing. No doubt many past records were not considered worth keeping and so the chain was broken in spots. But even in this treatise there can be errors, for at the age of 87 years one is not infallible. However, I have endeavored to refrain from injecting any records which I thought might be in error.

There is much speculation as to the various number of Tinsley emigrants who came to America, but in all my research I have been unable to find more than one antecedent.

Respectfully submitted

Walter R. Tinsley

I am indebted to many who are rich in the lore of this family history for their aid, patience and loyalty, in helping me to compile this genealogy. Especially do I wish to thank Mrs. Elizabeth Gladys Camp for her untiring and inestimable help through her intact memory, brilliant intellect and unfaltering loyalty.

Also to express my thanks to Mrs. Evelyn Smith Myers for indefatiguable work in searching out the most valuable information and making sublime contributions to this record.

There are some dear relatives that I feel I have left at the crossroads, simply because of missing links, I could not directly connect them. My apoligies go to Judge Thomas D. Tinsley of Ashland, Kentucky, Miss Hattie E. Tinsley of Louisville, Ky., Mr. E. Church Tinsley of Frankfort, Ky., and his sister Mrs. Anna Armstrong of Lakewood, Ohio, and Mr. Stewart Burgess Tinsley of New York City and Berkeley, Calif., with all of whom I had a most delightful contact that will always carry happy memories.

Mrs. C. J. Martens of Richmond, Va. is a devotee of Tinsley Genealogy.

To commemorate the name of Reuben Tinsley, my grandfather, has been the reason for prompting this treatise. I am not positive of the birth place of our venerable sire, but research leads me to believe that he was born in Amherst County, Virginia, near the old Pioneer settlement on Pedlar River where the Tinsley family reserved a cozy colony popularly known at that time as the "WILDERNESS". Many of the old Tinsley families lived, died and were buried there. Reuben Tinsley moved from Amherst County, Virginia to Franklin County, Virginia in 1794 and settled on a farm near Sydnorsville to raise his family. From this home more than three hundred descendents have been born to bless his name. Being of a quiet and reserved nature there are no outstanding records of his virtues but I am pursuaded that he was a man of noble character, high aspirations and sterling worth. He was a truely religious disciple, substantiated by the Bible names he used for his children. Two of his sons were Baptist Ministers but I learn that most of his direct family were Presbyterians. He and his wife are buried in the Tinsley graveyard near Sydnorsville, Franklin County, Virginia.

Thomas Tinsley I
Primogenitor

Born 1618 Died 1700

Married Elizabeth Randolph of Yorkshire, England.
Believed to be the daughter of Sir John Randolph (Knighted) and a sister of William Randolph who was also an emigrant to Virginia in its earliest history.

Thomas Tinsley arrived in Virginia AP 1638 and built a home on Totopatomoys Creek in New Kent County, twelve miles north of Richmond, Va. This part of Kent County was later changed to Hanover County. His first patent was for 300 acres of land on the west side of the Chickahominy River, Dec. 13, 1650. Bible records show a grant of land to him by the Crown of England dated Oct. 25, 1689. The old home place remains in the Tinsley Family and is now called Totomoi, located near Oakland, Va. Virginia history states that he was a man of high esteem, great influence and courage.

There is a legend in circulation that three Tinsley brothers came together to Virginia as emigrants but in my research I have been unable to find but this one as an emigrant to Virginia.

As customary at that time this Tinsley Family followed the old English custom of naming the first born son after the father, with this son inheriting the full estate and the rest of the children relegated to oblivion. This makes it difficult to trace the earlier line of succession. No doubt many of these early families moved from County to County seeking better homesites but nearly all remained in the Eastern Counties of Virginia.

A copy of his Will dated Oct. 9th, 1700, mentioned all of his children but Alice and we assume that she was not living at that time. With the exception of Thomas II I was unable to locate a record of his children other than that John and Cornelius were living in New Kent County, Va. in 1704. On June 21, 1699, Robert Payne brought suit against his father-in-law for that part of his estate which he claimed was due his wife. See Book 0, 1695-1699, Essex County, Va.

Thomas Tinsley II

Son of Thomas Tinsley and Elizabeth Randolph

Married Martha Ragland. Lived near Richmond, Va.

Children: Thomas III
John
Rachel
Martha (No records of succession of the latter three)

Thomas Tinsley II

Patented 1000 acres of land in Essex County, Va. in 1704.
At that time records show his wife's name as Sarah?
There is some contention that this Thomas Tinsley is not the same as the Thomas II living in Hanover County, Va. near Richmond.

Children: Edward
Isaac
David
Philip

David Tinsley
Son of Thomas II and Sarah
Married Ann ? of Caroline County, Va.
No children recorded

David Tinsley was a very rich man and reportedly at one time owned 93 slaves. Records show that he bought 268 acres of land in Caroline County from Thomas Jackson, July 4, 1792.

Philip Tinsley
Son of Thomas II and Sarah
Married Kesiah Stodghill

Edward Tinsley bought from Duncan Graham, Oct. 8, 1766, 740 acres of land on Hartis Creek at the foot of Tobacco Row Mountain in the west end of Amherst County, Deed Book C page 139. This is the place where the Tinsleys made a settlement called the Wilderness. Many Tinsley families have lived there and there is a large graveyard there commemorating the Wilderness. Near this location is New Glasco where Reuben Tinsley and Fanny Tyree lived. After the birth of four of their children they later moved to Franklin County, Va. Not far from the Wilderness is Agricola, the family home of some of the Tinsleys who married into the Martin Parks family. It is now owned by a Mr. Watts of Lynchburg, Va.

No record is shown of Elizabeth who married John Pendleton.

William and his wife died, leaving several orphan children, who were cared for by his brother Isaac and his wife Betty, who were appointed executors of the Estate.

There is no record shown of the next four children, Sarah, Edward, Joshua, Harriott.

Isaac married Betty Jane ? and they had three children, Isaac, Reuben and James. I was unable to find any record of Isaac and Reuben successions.

Mary who married Ambrose Rucker had fourteen children. Ambrose Rucker was a son of Fehar and grandson of Peter Rucker. He was large of statue, weighing over 300 pounds and was very wealthy. He was a leader in his church and headed the first Episcopal Church built in Amherst County, Va. Logs from this church were used at Sweetbrier College, and have the initial "T" carved in the end to commemorate the Tinsley family. He was a leader in public affairs and state and county business. The Tinsleys and Ruckers are closely allied by many marriages.

Children:
✓Thomas IV
Lucy — Married Richard Pickering
Charles
William
✓Wyatt
Elizabeth

Lucy & Pickering had two children, Rhoda who married Samuel Fox and Mary who married Peter Foster.

Charles and William were witnesses to a land sale in 1791.

According to my research I am convinced that Thomas Tinsley was twice married. He also moved from Hanover County to Essex County, Va. In 1698 he patented 111 1/2 acres of land. See land grant book #8 page 25, Essex County, Va. He also recorded a Will in Essex County, see will book 12 page 136, in which he named his wife Margaret. Extract from Will "To my wife Margaret, the Planatation on which I live for her life or widowhood, then to my son Joshua, if he dies without heirs to my sons, John, William and Issaac, any that leaves heirs. Household furniture to be divided between my wife and seven children. Witnessed by Thomas Knighton and Thomas Falcomer."

Thomas Tinsley III
Married Second Time to Margaret ?
Children:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| John | Married | Sarah Parks |
| Joshua | | |
| Issac | | |

Some of the above children may have died before the Will was made. The Will was made March 7, 1749 and probated July 16, 1764. See Will Book 12 page 136 Essex County.

John Tinsley

| Betsy | B 1764 | Married | John Rucker |
| Milly | B 1765 | Married | James Rucker |
| Agnes | B 1766 | Married | Richard Rucker |

Betsy was the second wife of John Rucker. His first wife was Miss Fielding, his third wife Mrs. Hudson (nee Miss Garr).

Milly married James Rucker first and following his death married Willaim Franklin. Reference is made to John Tinsley's will recorded at Madition County Court House, Sept. 10, 1797.

In the first census made in 1782 we find these three sons of Thomas III and his wife Margaret mention as household members and Owners. John had ten white persons and eight negroes, Joshua had five white persons and four negroes. and Issac had seven white persons and eight negroes. It appears that Thomas Tinsley III was wealthy, influential and a leading Episcopalian in his day.

John Brown Tinsley moved to a location near Big Island, Virginia. The Rev. Peter Tinsley was among the first Rectors of Old St. Johns Episcopal Church, Big Lick(now Roanoke, Va), from about Sept. 1st, 1860 until Nov. 7, 1866. He requested leave of absence from St. Johns in 1862 to become a Chaplain in the Confederate Army, serving in the 28th Reg. Hunter's Brigade, Longstreet Corps, Picket's Division, until 1864, when he returned to Big Lick. He was ordained a Priest by Bishop Johns, Apr.17,1862 at Monument Church, Richmond, Va.

He entered the Diocese of Md. in 1867, resigning in 1868 to become Chaplain at the University of Virginia. On June 3rd 1870 he left Charlottesville to become Rector of the Church of the Advent in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he served until 1902. He retired in 1902 to become Rector Emeritus, and died in Cincinnati January 4, 1908. He was buried in the City Cemetery, Bedford County, Va. by the side of his father, mother and sister.

Thomas Tinsley V

Married: Susanna Thompson
Children: Thomas Garland Tinsley (Thomas VI) B 1783
John Thompson B 1784
Mary B 1785
Nancy B 1787
Harriot B 1791

Thomas Tinsley V was a leader in the welfare of his country and was highly esteemed. He was a member of the Virginia Legislature and a Colonel in the Revolutionary War. The story has been handed down that while his brother, Peter, was a clerk of the High Court of Richmond, Thomas Tinsley V requested him to take Henry Clay into his office for instruction. Peter replied that he had no place for him, upon which Thomas V told him to make a place for him, which was done and Henry Clay started on his brilliant career in the Congress of the United States. It was in Hanover County, Va. that Henry Clay made his maiden speech which elevated him from obscurity to fame, advocating the Parsons cause- one of the most celebrated cases at law in the history of America.

Elizabeth Harrison was the daughter of Benjamin Harrison, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, served four terms in Congress and was twice the Governor of Virginia. His son William Henry Harrison was the ninth President of the United States. The old Harrison home is situated on the banks of the James River in full view of City Point, still standing as a monument to the family.

It is possible that Wyatt Tinsley had more children but I was unable to locate them.

Reuben Tinsley, grandfather of the Compiler, is the hero of this narrative. His nine children, my great aunts and uncles are the key characters of this history and it was to remember them that I undertook this tradition. I am not sure of the birth place of our venerable sire, but I believe he was born in Amherst County, Va. near the old pioneer settlement on Pedler River, called the Wilderness.

Fanny Tyree was the daughter of Jacob and Mary Tyree. B 1765

WILL of Thomas Tinsley I

In the Name of God ---Amen

I, Thomas Tinsley, being sick and weak in body, but in perfect health and memory, praised be to God, do make, sign and declare this my last Will and Testament in name and form following, revoking and annulling all former Wills by me declared and made, and this only to stand and no other.

FIRST AND PRINCIPALLY I commend my soul to Almighty God, my creator, assuredly believing that I shall receive full pardon and free remission of all my sins and be saved by ye precious death and merits of my Blessed Saviour and Redeemer, Jesus Christ, and my body to ye earth from whence it was taken, to be buried in such decent and Christian manner as ye executives, hereafter mentioned and named, shall be thought convenient, and as for such wordly estate as ye Lord in mercy hath sent me, my Will and meaning is ye same shall be employed and bestowed as is hereafter expressed. Now I desire all my just debts be paid by bill and account.

IMPRIMIS: I give and bequeath to my daughter Sicily Jennings, one shilling sterling. Now I give and bequeath to my daughter Ann Tyle one shilling sterling. My will and intention is that my loving Elizabeth have ye of my plantation and housings and orchard and all my personal estate, be it in what nature soever, during her natural life. After her death I dispose of it as followeth: Now I give and bequeath unto my son Thomas Tinsley, after the death of my wife as aforesaid, my plantation whereon I now live, with all the housing and orchards and land belonging to it, to him and his heirs forever. Now I give my aforesaid son Thomas, my cart and what belongs to it, and my X-cut saw, file and bitt, and one set of wedges, and my feather bed and all that belongs to ye bed I now lye on, and great table and forms belonging to it, and my chest and one large brass kettle and one brass mortar and pestle, and one great iron pot and pot hooks, and one iron pestle and one iron spitt, and two pewter dishes and looking glass and grindstone, and one young gray stoned Colt, branded TT, and I do give my first son Thomas Tinsley, ye third part of my cattle that is alive after the death of my said wife, and one pair of small stands and one handsome pair of brass candlesticks.

NOW I give and bequeath to my son John Tinsley, my other feather bed and what belongs to it. Now I give and bequeath unto my granddaughter Deborah Payne one gold ring, one iron pot and pott hooks, two pewter dishes, one brass basting ladle and one chest and round table and one brass skellet and frames. Now my will and desire is that all ye rest of my estate, after ye death of my foresaid wife, shall be equally divided between my two sons Cornelius Tinsley and John Tinsley, and last I do appoint, and constitute my son Thomas Tinsley my whole and soul executive, to see that this my Will performed. In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this 9th Day of October, 1700.

Signes Thomas Tinsley - his mark & seal

Signed and sealed in presence of us, Richard Mereweather, Jeremyah Poups and John Oakes. At a court held in Kent County. 28th 1702, Nickolas Mereweather gives upon his Corporal path takes upon ye Holy Evangelists, declared that he saw Thomas Tinsley, late of this County deceased, sign and seal and publish this his last Will and Testament and that he was then in perfect safe and memory. Also John Oakes declared upon his oath in like manner that he saw Thomas Tinsley own this to be his last will.

Extraxt from Will of Thomas Tinsley II, Nov. 5th, 1715.
Will probated Feb. 22nd, 1716, Ref. Will and Deed Book 14 : Page 483, Essex County, Virginia. His wife in this Will is mentioned as Sarah.

"To my sons Thomas and Philip each a horse. To my other sons a cow. To each of my daughters a ewe." (He does not take the trouble of even naming his children). On April 26th, 1704, he patented 1400 acres of land in Essex County, Virginia, on the Mattapony River, Land Grant Book 8, Page 593. On Feb. 22, 1716, Sarah Tinsley, his wife, was bonded as Executrix of the Will of Thomas Tinsley, deceased James Coghill and Thomas Jackson security on her bond. On May 14, 1720 Sarah Tinsley purchased from Joseph Berry 250 acres of land in Essex County, Va. There is contention that this Thomas Tinsley of Essex is not the same as the Thomas Tinsley of Hanover County, Va. Since all court records were destroyed during the Civil War it was impossible to trace the two.

Thomas Tinsley III, a son of Thomas II also moved from Hanover County to Essex County and patented 111 1/2 acres of land in Essex County in 1698, land grant book 8 page 25 Essex County, Va. He left a Will naming his wife as Margaret.

Extraxt of Will- To my wife Margaret, the plantation on which I live for her life and widowhood, then to my son Joshua, if he dies without heirs it goes to my sons John, William and Isaac, any that leave heirs. Household furniture to be divided between my wife and seven children. Witnesses Thomas Knighton, Thomas Falconer

Will of Reuben Tinsley: I, Reuben Tinsley, of the County of Franklin and State of Virginia, do make this my last Will and Testament in manner of form following:

It is my will and desire after my death that my Executor, herein after named, shall, out of my estate, pay all my just debts. And whereas some of my children have drawn from my estate more than others, it is my desire they shall be made equal should they require it, and the situation of my estate having regard for my wife admit to it. I give unto my loving wife, Frances Tinsley, during her natural life and widowhood, all the balance of my estate both real and personal; to be sold and after making the children all equal, the money to be divided equally among them or their legal representatives.

Lastly, I do appoint my son Willis Tinsley executor to this Will and Testament; and he is to be permitted to qualify without giving security. In testimony whereof I have here unto set my hand and seal, this the 22nd day of July 1831.

WILL of Jacob Tyree & his wife Mary:

I, Jacob Tyree, citizen of the County of Amherst, State of Virginia, Parish of Lexington, being at this time in sound mind and sane memory, but calling to mind the frailty of human sense and nature, and uncertainty of life, knowing I shall shortly experience that change which sooner or later will be the fate of every person living, do make and ordain this, revoking all othere heretorfore made, my last Will and Testament.

FIRST, I recommend my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the dust from whence it originated, and to what wordly property it has the Almighty in his Providence to bless me with, I desire may be disposed of as follows:

My lawful debts being first paid out of my estate.

Item I - I give to my beloved wife, Mary Tyree, a negro wench named Sue, four beds and furniture during her life, and her decease to dispose of them at her pleasure.

Item II- I give to my daughter, Nancy Wood, a negro fellow named Sam and a negro girl named Sarah, to her and her heirs forever.

ItemIII- I give to my daughter, Mary Baily, two negro girls, one named Aggy and the other named Sucky, to her and her heirs forever.

Item IV- I give to my son William Tyree a negro wench named Dorcas, her child Charlotte, also 175 acres of land whereon I now live, lying on the south side of said tract, to be taken off by a line beginning at the mouth of the Saw Pitt branch, running from thence so as to include the above quanity of acres. To him and his heirs forever.

Item V- I give to my daughter Sarah Rutherford a negro wench named Moll, and her increase during her natural life; at her death I give the aforesaid Moll and her increase to the heirs of her body. To them and their heirs forever.

ItemVI- I give to my daughter Fanny Tinsley, a negro fellow named Tom, and a negro girl named Lucy now in her possession, to her and her heirs forever.

ItemVII- I give to my son Jacob Tyree the balance of the land whereon I now live, after the part willed to my son William is taken off, also a negro wench named Jude and her children, John, Jordon, George and Nelson and her increase hereafter; to him and his heirs forever.

ItemVIII- I give to my daughter Jane Gibson a negro boy named Townson, now in her possession; to her and her heirs forever.

Item IX- I give to my grandaughter, Betty Turner, a negro girl named Philis; to her and her heirs forever.

The rest of my estate not otherwise disposed of at my decease I desire may be divided equally among my daughters, Nancy, Mary, Sarah, Fanny and Jane, reserving exclusively the part that may be coming to my daughter Jane Gibson for the purpose of indemnifying myself and sons, Jacob and William Tyree being affixed as security for Jacob Gibson, the husband of my daughter Jane. The above legacy is sufficient to satisfy the same. I desire each of my legatees to have a proportion able part in full discharge thereof. I, the Testator, do hereby appoint and nominate William Tyree Jr. Executor to this my last will and testament.

continued WILL of Jacob Tyree and Wife Mary.

I, the Testator, do acknowledge the foregoing will to be my last Will and Testament. Given under my hand this 6th day of October, 1796.

The WILL of Willis Lewis Tinsley

I, Willis L. Tinsley, considering the uncertainty of life, and the necessity of being prepared for death, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament.

First- I WILL and desire that all my just debts be paid by my executor herein named.

Second- I give and devise to my wife, Amarilla Tinsley, my mansion house in the County of Franklin, Va., together with the tract of land annexed thereto; with all my household and kitchen furniture of every description; and the following slaves to wit- Nancy and her two children, Sam and Emaline, to have and to hold during her natural life. I also give and bequeath to her so many horses and cows and hogs with such farming utensils; so much of the provisions laid in for the family, as she may select, to keep also the sum of Two Hundred Dollars in cash.

Thirdly- I give and devise to my executors herein named the tract of land on which Jane M. Tinsley, the wife of Reuben L. Tinsley, now resides, to hold by them for the sole use and benefit of the said Jane M. Tinsley during her natural life, free from the claims of her husband, and also the sum of $1000.00 to be lent out of my said Executors on good security, and the investment annually to be paid to the said Jane M. Tinsley free from the claims of her husbnad, but the principal to be returned to my estate after death.

Fourthly- I give and bequeath to my executors the sum of $1000.00 by to be held by them and the interest thereon annually paid by them to Permelia B. Tinsley during her life, and the principal to be returned to the estate at her death, which sum is to come out of the estate going to her children. That my son James H. Tinsley is to have less by $600.00 than the rest. Reuben is to have no more than I have given him.

I hereby appoint Benjamin Tinsley and Samuel Fishburne my executors, and my desire is that they shall not be required to give security on their qualifying.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 14th day of August 1862.

Signed Willis L. Tinsley

Amarilla Goode, daughter of Benjamin Goode and Elizabeth Carlin, married Willis Lewis Tinsley.
Elizabeth Carlin was the daughter of Lt. Douglas Carlin, so of General Carlin, USA. Lt. Douglas Carlin married at the Cheyenne Agency (1735) Maiden Duprest, the wealthiest Indian Heiress of the Sioux Reservation. More than 1000 Indians witnessed the cermony which lasted over three days. Their son, Benjamin Carlin of Amherst County, Virginia married Elizabeth Camden, daughter of "Old Billy Camden" of Scottish fame, then living in Lincoln County, Kentucky. Old Billy lived to be 114 years old.

Fanny Tyree Tinsley, great, great grandaughter of Thomas Tinsley III, great granddaughter of Wyatt Tinsley, grandaughter of Reuben Tinsley and daughter of Willis Lewis Tinsley and Amarilla Goode, married Samuel W. Fishburne, 1832. She was of the grand type of old Virginia woman. She lived in a large log house, built in pioneer days before nails were made, except in blacksmith shops, and wooden pins were used to hold the sheeting and roof shingles. She had a large family, 12 children, so needed a large house. Since in those days the greatness of a woman was measured by the number of children to whom she gave birth, she was considered among the greatest. More than fifty years ago while on a visit at her home, a party of young folks built a rock monument on the hill above her home, and we placed our names and dates under it. I have never been back to see if the monument still stands. She had the reputation of serving the best food a dining table could furnish, most of it raised on her own farm; even the chestnuts were preserved for summer eating. One wonders if her descendents followed her noble examples. She was Presbyterian by faith and knew how to live a good life. She died in Roanoke, Va. AD 1900, and was buried in the City Cemetery. Her parents and grand parents were buried in Franklin County. Many of the good things for the City of Roanoke, Va. came from her sons and grandsons. See another page for the Fishburne lineage.

Junius Lee Fishburne died in infancy.

Reuben Harvey Fishburne operated a tobacco manufacturing plant in Roanoke for many years and was a pioneer builder of the community.

Joshua Blair Fishburne, a prominent citizen of the city of Roanoke, held many responsible positions in State and City affiars. One time Mayor of Roanoke and a member of the State Legislature. He was influential in business affairs and among the wealthy of the city.

James Addison Fishburne was a leading merchant of the City of Roanoke and a pioneer in its growth.

Junius Blair Fishburne was a leader in the business life of the City of Roanoke and headed many thriving enterprises, being one of its most successful citizens and ranked as one of its richest. He is a living example of what pluck and energy can accomplish , from the botton to the top. He gave the City of Roanoke several of its most beautiful parks, was very generous and thoughtful. He headed the leading bank of the City, the First National Exchange, for many years. He is worthy of the highest praise for his citizenship.

Tiption T. Fishburne was among the pioneer builder of the City of Roanoke coming to the City when it was known as Big Lick. A real estate dealer, a tobacco manufacture and a banker, he was widely known and very successful in his enterprises. He was a lay reader and leader in the Methodist Church and frequently performed in the capacity of an itinerant pastor.

John Robert Fishburne was a man of noble character who inherited many of the beautiful traits of his mother. He was one of my closest pals whom I held in the highest esteem and I always considered him the "Flower of the Flock" in his family life. He died in Texas while on a visit to relatives in Texarkanna. A beautiful monument marks the spot where he sleeps.

Edward L. Stone, husband of Minnie Tinsley Fishburne, operated one of the largest printing establishments in the South and his wares were widely distributed. He headed many civic organizations and was well known and very successful in business.

Samuel Fishburne Woody headed one of the largest hardware stores in the City of Roanoke, Roanoke Hardware Co., was highly esteemed, popular with his fellowman and a leader in public affairs. His son Robert follows in his footsteps, was Mayor of the City of Roanoke, and most active in the City life.

Peter Hopkins Fishburne was an ordained Methodist Minister and in his day filled a regular Floyd County circuit. He was loved by all who knew him and had many of his mothers beautiful traits.

Susan Emaline was a teacher in the public schools of Franklin County and did much to educate the young, many of whom have memories of her.

The Fishburne family and the City of Roanoke are indivisible.

Re: HENSLEY
RUCKER

Dear Melanie;

I'm sending you copies of the information I have on the Hensley and Rucker families. Most of this information was provided to me by others whose names you will find in the notes.

Our families are closely related so it will be very interesting to see what information each of us has that will be helpful to the others.

If you know that your Isaac Tinsley, Sr. is the brother of my Edward Tinsley, that is information I will cherish because I have never been sure where Edward fits into the family. I do have some information but it seems unclear to me.

Thank you for sharing your information with me. I hope you find something helpful in this information.

Good luck on your searches!

Sincerely,

Marilyn Kovach

Marilyn Kovach

Thanks -

The information you gave me on P made it possible for me to realize that I had Peter Reeches family in PAF twice. I was able to combine them. I had birthdate with one family and spouse names on the other.

Thanks -
Marilyn

| HUSBAND | Edward TINSLEY-67 | Yr of Birth 1700 |

HUSBAND - Edward TINSLEY-67

Information from Philip P. Janosik (40712 236th Ave SE, Enumclaw, Wa. 98022) Edward's birthdate is estimated based on his daughter's, Mary, estimated birth year. The bond for the administrator for Edwards estate was dated 6 may 1782 in Amherst Co., Will Book No. 2, 1780-1786 pp 56-57.
One reference in the possession of Philip Janosik indicates the Edward married Margaret Taliaferro of Caroline Co. Other references say Margaret's name is Taylor.
(Inforamtion from Michael John Neill is that Margaret's name is McCormick)

Edward bougth from Duncan Graham, 8 Oct 1766, 740 acres of land on hartis Creek at the foot of Tobacco Row mountain in the west end of Amherst Co., Deed Book C pp. 139. This is the place where the Tinsleys made a settlement called the Wilderness. Many Tinsely families have lived there and there is a large graveyard there commerating the Wilderness.

NOTE: There is confusion as to whether this Edward is in fact the son of Thomas II as indicated by Philip P. Janosik because the last name of Maragaret which he gives is TAYLOR or TALIAFERRO or MC CORMICK as indicated by Michael John Neill- which may indicate that this Edward is a different person although all other known information fits together. Further investigation is required.

WIFE - Margaret TAYLOR-224

Margaret taylor is identified as Edwards Tinsely's wife in two references. Birth year is assumed 2 years later than her husband's estimated birth year. Margaret was not mentioned in te settlement of her husband's estate, therefore it is assumed she died before her husband, hence the year of death is estimated.

CHILD 1 - Mary (Rucker) TINSLEY-106

Mary's birth year is assummed tobe 2 years later than her husband's birth year. The date and palce of her death was published in "The Lynchbur Star", 31 Jul 1806, Obituaries.

CHILD 2 - Elizabeth (Pendleton) TINSLEY-99

Married John Pendleton. There are no children recorded to this marriage.

CHILD 3 - William TINSLEY-138

William and his wife (unknown) died, leaving several orphan children, who were cared for by his brother Isaac and his wife Betty, who were appointed executors of the estate.

CHILD 4 - Sarah (Vernon) TINSLEY-143

Married Richard Vernon.

CHILD 5 - Edward TINSLEY-141

Married Matilda McCain.

CHILD 6 - Joshua TINSLEY-96

No records found of Joshua marrying.

HUSBAND Edward TINSLEY-67 Yr of Birth 1700
WIFE Margaret TAYLOR-224 Yr of Birth 1702

CHILD 7 - Harriott (Jones) TINSLEY-139
Married Joseph Jones.

CHILD 8 - Isaac TINSLEY-98
Married Betty Jane_____. They had three children: Isaac, Reuben, and James.

CHILD 9 - David TINSLEY-257
Married Nancy Burford about 1765.
Birthdate is estimated based on estimated marriage date and estimated birth year of first chil. David's Will dated 7 Apr 1826 with Codicils of 9 May 1826 and 5 Jan 1827 added. Frist inventory of the estate was dated 11 Jun 1828. Will and inventory recorded in Amherst co., Will Book 7, pp 156 thru 167.
